Final Step: Submit the Form

Once all required details are filled in:

- Click the Sign Up button to complete registration.

After Registration

Once you click the Sign Up button, a pop-up window will appear displaying your Username and Password.

- These login credentials will also be sent to the authorized person's registered email ID provided during the sign-up process .
- The manufacturer registration process works as follows:
 - A manufacturer first signs up through the system and receives a username and password.
 - At this stage, the account remains in inactive status.
 - The registration request is then forwarded to the Verification Officer.
 - Once the Verification Officer reviews and approves the request, the manufacturer account will be activated.
 - At the time of approval, the manufacturer will also receive an official email confirming that the login has been approved and that they can now access the system.

- Important Notes

Please check the inbox and spam/junk folder of the authorized email ID for the login details.

Important: Even though credentials are sent by email, it's recommended that you copy or write down your login credentials, as they will be required for future access to the portal.
